

Saturday Special Sale of Parlor Golf Games

A $2.00 Value---Saturday Only, for 79c each

Golf players pronounce this game to be as close to the regular golf game as it would be possible to be played indoors. Parlor Golf is a game that requires skill, the same as putting a ball on the regular golf links; it is interesting and entertaining. A great deal of entertainment can be had from this game by organizing a golf league among your friends.

WE SHALL BE PLEASED TO SHOW YOU

Peter and George Mutch of Washington street left to-day for New York from which place they are to sail Saturday for New Orleans en route to Phoenix, Ariz. The brothers expect to spend the winter in the latter place.

George E. Ford of Boston, one of the publishers of Granite, Marble & Bronze, and P. E. McLaughlin, publisher of the Monumental Retailer, Boston, who were in the city last evening to attend the annual banquet of the Barre Granite Manufacturers' association at Hotel Barre, are remaining for a few days' business visit in the granite belt. The Monumental News of Chicago was represented at the banquet by its local correspondent, James R. Coutts, and the Eastern Reporter by H. K. Bush. D. Janion MacNichols of Boston, an advertising man representing the Taylor-Critchfield-Clague agency, was also a guest of the manufacturers.

Joseph Jacques, a Waterbury woodsman, who was arrested on North Main street Wednesday afternoon by Officer Harry Gamble, pleaded guilty to an intoxication charge when arraigned before Magistrate H. W. Scott in city court this morning. Asked to disclose on the place where he purchased his liquor, Jacques referred the court to his dealer's address in Boston, whereupon the judge sentenced him to serve a sentence of 30 days in the county jail and to pay a fine of $15 and costs. Jacques struck town Tuesday with a bundle of change which he collected by chopping Waterbury trees.

Among the visitors in the city yesterday and to-day were the following persons: H. O. McCullis and son of Marshfield, John Riley of East Berkshire, D. M. Mac-Arthur of New York City, V. H. Bendell of Syracuse, N. Y., who is in Barre representing the Pathe exchange, George A.
Cross and John A. Cross of Northfield, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Olney of Boston, Joseph A. Leppard of Marlboro, Mass., Miss Hazel Gellis of Rockport, Me., J. J. Kennedy of Burlington, P. M. McLaughlin of Boston, C. C. Hagar of Seneca Falls, N. Y., Fred W. Putnam of Brandon, C. M.
Austin of St. Albans, Mrs. Walter Cowles of Wollaston, Mass., B. U. Wells of St.
Johnsbury, L. R. Reilly of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Batchelder of Plainfield, R. Royal Lord of Burlington, C. P.
Brodenshaugh of Farmington, Conn.

Barre granite quarries and the cutting plants here in the city are to be shown in the movies if the plans of V. H. Bendell of Syracuse, N. Y., a representative of the Pathe Exchange, Inc., who is stopping at Hotel Barre for a few days, attain fruition. Mr. Bendell, in search of Vermont material for a Pathe pictorial feature, came to town yesterday and was taken to the quarries. The opportunities he discovered for making a film of real merit so impressed him that he communicated with the exchange and is awaiting instructions. He hopes to have the cinematograph man here on the grounds sometime this winter and intends to acquire a thorough reproduction of the granite industry for the screen. Recently he was in charge of a Pathe picture-making project at the quarries and mines in Port Henry and Mineville, N. Y. street.

"The Mystery of the Tapestry Room," a three-reel drama featuring Margery Beardley, also King Baggott in a comedy, "Their Only Child," at the Bijou to-day--adv.

Matthew Haley, who recently completed setting a large mausoleum job in Newark, N. J., arrived in Barre yesterday morning and left to-day for Boston, where he will be engaged on the Mary Baker Eddy memorial, being erected in Mount Auburn cemetery. This is built of Bethel granite and is a canopy-shaped, being about 30 feet in diameter at the base. It is said to be the largest and perhaps the most handsome memorial of the kind in the country.

From all parts of the city the police department has been besieged with complaints concerning the early-winter practice of sliding on sidewalks and in highways where coasting has been prohibited by the city council, and The Times is requested to say that sidewalk coasting is strictly forbidden. Moreover, until the council sees fit to revoke the schedule formerly in use, the streets assigned to the coasters last winter may be used.
Although the opportunities for coasting this season have been few in number and not of the best, several minor accidents have already occurred. Pedestrians have found themselves stepping over so nimbly to avoid sidewalk coasters and highway hills proscribed by the city fathers have swarmed with pastimers.

BETHEL.

You Should Buy Your Clothing; Not Simply Let Someone Sell it to You

There is a vast difference between buying and being sold.

Do not labor longer under the false impression that you cannot find the kind of clothing you desire, ready for immediate service, exactly as you want it and of a quality you can't surpass.

Step into this live store any day and ask to see the new fall and winter clothes for men and young men.

Try on the suit of your choice. Pick your own exclusive style. Select your own particular fabric in your own particular shade.

Not a picture or a sample, but the finished garments.
Buy your clothes, and know that they are what you want.

The price always represents full 100 per cent. quality, and your satisfaction is always guaranteed.
